

TRAINEE FOR PRODUCT MANAGEMENT BACKOFFICE (F/M/X)

The family-run company Blum produces flap, hinge, pull-out and pocket systems for furniture that are delivered to over 120 markets. We employ over 9,300 people, and more than 6,800 of them work in Vorarlberg on Lake Constance, our home. Did you know that our marketing employees work with 33 subsidiaries worldwide? In order to be successful in the long term, we adapt to different cultures, mentalities and market developments. For product management, we are looking for ambitious candidates who enjoy taking on technical and organizational challenges in the back office and at the same time are constantly developing.

YOU

- ... support product managers in operational and strategic matters
- ... take responsibility for cross-cutting tasks in product management
- ... work on international projects and contribute your expertise

WE

- ... value good education – you have completed a degree in business administration or a technical university program
- ... offer you a responsible position with high development potential
- ... seek a personality who enjoys working across departments and is communicative
- ... operate globally - convincing communication in German and English is important to us
