

PRODUCTION WORKER (F/M/X)

Blum is a family-owned company with 6 production sites in Vorarlberg. Did you know that we produce millions of hinge, pull-out, flap, and pocket systems for furniture every week for the global market? Here in Vorarlberg, people from over 60 different nations work in production with highly automated high-tech equipment.

YOU

- ... operate, set up, and maintain our production facilities
- ... independently rectify minor disruptions
- ... ensure that our products maintain their consistently good quality
- ... work closely with maintenance and quality assurance and contribute suggestions for improvement

WE

- ... are looking forward to receive your application if you bring along some experience and ideally computer skills as well
- ... value good communication - very good German language skills, both spoken and written
- ... work with highly automated equipment – ideally, you have already gained experience in this area
- ... are seeking team players who can work in a 3-shift operation to ensure that our equipment functions smoothly
