

TRANSLATION MANAGEMENT IN MARKETING – MATERNITY COVER AND PART-TIME (F/M/X)

Blum manufactures lift, hinge, pull-out and pocket systems that are designed for furniture and delivered to over 120 markets. Marketing content is frequently translated into more than 30 different languages and is aimed at a broad readership, ranging from customers and Blum employees to end users.

YOU will

- ... work together with a motivated team to coordinate and manage the translation and proofing of content required for our marketing campaigns
- ... ensure that top quality translations are delivered on time
- ... liaise with our subsidiaries and external service providers
- ... be an internal contact for queries relating to translations

WE

- ... are looking for an enthusiastic and dedicated addition to our team, ideally with a background in translation – students are also welcome to apply
- ... offer the opportunity to work with modern technologies and seek someone who has experience in the use of the CAT tool SDL Trados Studio
- ... are internationally connected, which is why we are looking for a team member who is interested in different languages and cultures and has a good command of German and English
- ... value conscientious and reliable individuals who attach importance to accuracy
